

Kill and Kill Again

© Jason Read and Dan Russell

He's a man with a weapon
Who only shoots to kill
Just one pull on his trigger
Leaves his target still

In his eyes there is a fire
All death provokes desire
His girls always give ten out of ten

Kill and Kill Again

He's a man with a mission
He has to save the world
With deadly competition
He always gets the girls

One Smile one winking eye
He doesn't have to try
He is better than other men

Kill and Kill Again

He's been granted the right
To fight his own fight
He's simply not like other men

He can bang with his gun
Bang it for fun
Again and Again and Again!

On his pillow there is a whisper
That speaks of love
But watch out for your sister
When push comes to shove

He's hot stuff and he's British
And his grandma was Yiddish
He'll kill to keep you safe tonight and then...

He'll kill and kill again
