

Bang a Dodo

© 2004 Saker/Wickham/Russell

Bang a Dodo, Bam Bam
C'mon and sing it just as loud as you can
Bang a Dodo, join the band
That's the Brotherhood and the Sisterhood of man

Why should we go on fighting wars
That bring pain and suffering?
Why can't we just lay down our guns
And live the joy that peace will bring
Come everyone black yellow brown or white
All hold hands, and let your voices unite
C'mon let's make the rafters ring
We can change the world each time we sing

Bang a Dodo, Bam Bam
C'mon and sing it just as loud as you can
Bang a Dodo, join the band
That's the Brotherhood and the Sisterhood of man

Why should we hear dear children cry
From famine death and drought?
Let's hear their voices raised on high
Let's hear the third world all sing out
And everyone, black yellow brown or white
All join hands and let our voices unite
C'mon let's make the rafters ring
We can change the world
Ready
Aim
Sing

Bang a Dodo, Bam Bam
C'mon and sing it just as loud as you can
Bang a Dodo, join the band
That's the Brotherhood and the Sisterhood of man

We'd all do much better if we tried to get along
And helped everybody sing this song

Bang a Dodo, Bam Bam
C'mon and sing it just as loud as you can
Bang a Dodo, join the band
That's the Brotherhood and the Sisterhood
The Brotherhood and the Sisterhood
The Brotherhood and the Sisterhood of man

Bang a dodo, yeah yeah etc...
